Senators Palumbo, Walters, Plymale, Stollings, Williams and Unger offered the following resolution:
Senate Concurrent Resolution 13—Requesting the Division of Highways name bridge number 20-77-101.40 (20A434), locally known as I-77 Garrison Avenue Overpass 2567, carrying Interstate 77 over Garrison Avenue in Kanawha County, the "Tom Williams Family Bridge".

Whereas, The family of Tom Williams was raised on Garrison Avenue in Charleston, West Virginia; and

Whereas, A daughter in the family, Lena Gay Williams McClandish, served in the U. S. Navy, stationed at a Maryland hospital; and

Whereas, One son, Thomas Buck Williams, also served in the U. S. Navy as a "frogman" during the Korean War; and

Whereas, A second son, Gene Williams, served in the U. S. Army and was stationed at Fort Hood, Washington; and

Whereas, A third son, U. S. Marine Gunnery Sergeant Dennis Williams, while serving as a Platoon Sergeant with Company D, First Battalion, First Marines, First Marine Division, in connection with operations against the enemy in the Republic of Vietnam, courageously exposed himself to enemy fire to carry a wounded comrade across fifty meters of fire-swept terrain to a place of relative safety were medical aid was available; and

Whereas, Gunnery Sergeant Dennis Williams was awarded two Purple Hearts and retired after twenty-one years of service; and

Whereas, As a result of his courage, bold initiative and unflustering devotion to duty at great personal risk, Gunnery Sergeant Dennis Williams is authorized to wear the Combat V; and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor the Williams family's contribution to the nation and its military services, made by the sister and three brothers herein named; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Division of Highways is hereby requested to name bridge number 20-77-101.40 (20A434), locally known as I-77 Garrison Avenue Overpass 2567, carrying Interstate 77 over Garrison Avenue in Kanawha County, the "Tom Williams Family Bridge"; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Commissioner of the Division of Highways is hereby requested to have made and be placed signs identifying the "Tom Williams Family Bridge"; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Clerk of the Senate is directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Commissioner of the Division of Highways.

Which, under the rules, lies over one day.

Senators Walters, Plymale, Stollings, Williams and Unger offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution 12—Designating Wednesday, January 27, 2016, as Innovation and Entrepreneurship Day at the Legislature.

Whereas, Research and innovation continue to be the bedrocks of America’s economic strength and vitality; and

Whereas, Facilitating innovation-based economic development and the growth of entrepreneurial companies are critical to our state’s future and prosperity; and
Whereas, In 2013, West Virginia continued to make good progress toward a broader, more robust innovation economy; and

Whereas, Entrepreneurs and small businesses create the vast majority of the new jobs in the United States; and

Whereas, Research and development activities being done in federally funded, university and private laboratories in our state are important for new discoveries, scientific and engineering solutions and potential commercialization opportunities; and

Whereas, Recent studies point to the need for states to nurture research and development activities, develop innovation assets and grow businesses to diversify their economies; and

Whereas, A technology-based economic development study by the Battelle Technology Partnership Practice highlighted four key innovation clusters where West Virginia should focus its innovation efforts; and

Whereas, These four key innovation clusters are advanced energy, chemicals/advanced materials, biometrics and identity management and biotechnology; and

Whereas, Innovations in manufacturing, such as 3D printing, are opening new opportunities for West Virginia’s small manufacturing firms to develop new products and processes to improve their bottom lines; and

Whereas, There is growing interest in entrepreneurship across our state as business plan competitions are attracting record-setting numbers of applications and other groups are exploring ways to bring entrepreneurship education into the K-12 system; and

Whereas, Improving access to risk capital is a critical need that is being addressed by existing and new public and private programs, such as the West Virginia Capital Access Program, the 1NNOVA Fund, the West Virginia Growth Investment, LLC and the Appalachian Community Capital; and

Whereas, More than one hundred organizations, agencies and companies are working together to help advance the state's innovation and entrepreneurship potential and capacity; and

Whereas, West Virginia has developed an integrated ecosystem of organizations, agencies and financial firms working collaboratively to spur innovation enterprises and jobs; and

Whereas, Many of these innovation drivers are here at the Capitol today as part of the “Innovation and Entrepreneurship Day” hosted by Industries of the Future-West Virginia and TechConnect WV; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate:

That the Senate hereby designates Wednesday, January 27, 2016, as Innovation and Entrepreneurship Day at the Legislature; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the innovation industry is interested in realizing the long-term economic opportunities that an innovation-based economy can provide our state's citizens; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Clerk is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Industries of the Future-West Virginia and TechConnect WV.
At the request of Senator Walters, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Senators Kirkendoll, Yost, Plymale, Stollings, Beach, Prezioso, Williams, Gaunch, Romano and Unger offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution 13—Designating January 31, 2016, as a Day of Prayer for the Coalfields.

Whereas, Divine Providence has made the State of West Virginia rich in coal with approximately 51 billion tons of recoverable reserves ready to be mined; and

Whereas, For more than a century, West Virginia coal has helped fuel America’s expansion westward, supported the industrial revolution and powered our nation’s way to victory in two World Wars; and

Whereas, The State of West Virginia depends on coal as the foundation of its economy; and

Whereas, The coal industry has historically provided more than 25,000 direct mining jobs, paid more than $3.4 billion in wages and generated more than $26 billion in total economic activity statewide annually; and

Whereas, The coal industry and its support functions provide a high percentage of the good paying, full-time jobs in this state; and

Whereas, The coalfields of West Virginia are experiencing a significant economic downturn as a direct result of the policy decisions of the Obama Administration as administered through its regulatory agencies; and

Whereas, The regulatory actions of the Obama Administration have already shut down hundreds of our coal mines, coal processing and coal loading facilities and coal-fired power plants here in the state; and

Whereas, The economic downturn has resulted in massive unemployment, economic hardship and poverty across a large part of our state; and

Whereas, Unemployment across the coalfields far exceeds 10 percent in many of our coal-producing counties; and

Whereas, This economic hardship has inordinately affected the poor, the elderly and children; and

Whereas, This economic hardship has created despair and fostered widespread drug and alcohol addiction; and

Whereas, Our faith teaches us that God answers the prayers of His people; and

Whereas, West Virginians have deep and abiding faith in an Almighty God; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate:

That the Senate hereby designates January 31, 2016, as a Day of Prayer for the Coalfields; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Clerk is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the organizers of a Day of Prayer for the Coalfields.
