Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Senators Miller, Facemire, Leonhardt, Plymale, Williams and Laird offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution 26—Recognizing Bryan Humphreys for distinction and professionalism as West Virginia’s Outstanding Logger.

Whereas, Bryan Humphreys, owner of B. T. Humphreys Logging, is a board member of the West Virginia Forestry Association (WVFA), a member of the West Virginia Loggers Council and the 2014 WVFA Logger of the Year; and

Whereas, Safety is a top priority at B. T. Humphreys Logging and crew members receive proper training and are all West Virginia Certified Loggers; and

Whereas, B. T. Humphreys Logging’s attention to detail in application of Best Management Practices, reclamation work and resource utilization is of the utmost importance to B T. Humphreys Logging in the company’s effort to protect and sustain resources for future generations; and
Whereas, In thirteen years of business, B. T. Humphreys Logging has never had a Best Management Practice compliance citation, as the company takes every precaution when harvesting sites; and

Whereas, Bryan Humphreys, for his excellence in logging, was named the 2015 Forest Resources Association’s Appalachian Region Outstanding Logger of the Year; and

Whereas, Bryan Humphreys has displayed excellence in his industry and dedicated public service to his community and is a shining example to all West Virginians of what can be accomplished with hard work, dedication and spirit; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate:
That the Senate hereby recognizes Bryan Humphreys for distinction and professionalism as West Virginia’s Outstanding Logger; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Senate congratulates Bryan Humphreys for being named the 2015 Forest Resources Association’s Appalachian Region Outstanding Logger of the Year; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Clerk is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to Bryan Humphreys.

At the request of Senator Miller, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

On motion of Senator Carmichael, the Senate recessed for one minute.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and resumed business under the sixth order.

Senators Kessler, Leonhardt, Beach, Williams and Laird offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution 27—Designating February 9, 2016, as Fairness West Virginia Day at the Legislature.

Whereas, Fairness West Virginia is a statewide civil rights advocacy organization dedicated to the fair treatment and civil rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender West Virginians; and

Whereas, Fairness West Virginia works to ensure lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender West Virginians can be open, honest and safe at home, work and in the community; and

Whereas, Fairness West Virginia works to promote diversity in West Virginia; and

Whereas, There are 57,000 lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender West Virginians living, working and raising families in the Mountain State; and

Whereas, The Senate invites all members of the West Virginia Legislature and all citizens of West Virginia to join in recognizing the value and importance of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender West Virginians; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate:
That the Senate hereby designates February 9, 2016, as Fairness West Virginia Day at the Legislature; and, be it
Further Resolved, That the Clerk is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the representatives of Fairness West Virginia.

At the request of Senator Kessler, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

On motion of Senator Carmichael, the Senate recessed for one minute.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and resumed business under the sixth order.

Senators Karnes, Plymale, Williams and Kessler offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution 28—Designating February 9, 2016, as Forestry Day at the Legislature.

Whereas, The West Virginia Division of Forestry created the “Loggers of Excellence” program as a recognition initiative designed and implemented to place positive emphasis on those professional loggers who go above and beyond industry standards during a given calendar year; and

Whereas, Professional loggers must qualify for the following minimum criteria on an annual basis: The company must maintain a valid timber license for the entire year; must be in compliance with the laws of the state, specifically referring to their business license, workers’ compensation and unemployment compensation; must receive no orders for noncompliance from the Division of Forestry; and must be a professional logger who has harvested at least 100 acres during the year; and

Whereas, Professional loggers are the keystone for the entire forest products industry which provides tremendous economic benefit to the state; and

Whereas, In 2015, one hundred eighty-one professional loggers exceeded these standards and twenty-seven of those exceeded these standards for five consecutive calendar years, from 2011 through 2015; and

Whereas, Forest management and sustainability is impossible without the efforts of professional loggers; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate:

That the Senate hereby designates February 9, 2016, as Forestry Day at the Legislature; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Clerk is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the appropriate officials representing the Division of Forestry.

At the request of Senator Karnes, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

Upon expiration of the recess, the Senate reconvened and resumed business under the sixth order.

Senators Ferns, Plymale, Williams, Beach, Kessler and Laird offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution 29—Designating February 9, 2016, as Women’s and Girls’ Day at the Legislature.
Whereas, The West Virginia Women’s Commission is celebrating nearly four decades of promoting the status and empowerment of all West Virginia women through advocacy, research, education and consensus building; and

Whereas, The West Virginia Women’s Commission strives to foster women’s economic, political, educational and social development, to ensure their full participation in society and to recognize their achievements; and

Whereas, The West Virginia Women’s Commission has continued its history of honoring women across the state through programs such as Celebrating a Legacy of Women in Public Service during Women’s History Month, educating women and legislators during their Annual Women’s Day at the Legislature, completing an annual policy statement highlighting legislation of importance to women and families and by recognizing the Annual Women’s Equality Day Celebration commemorating the passage of the 19th amendment; and

Whereas, Through the West Virginia Women’s Commission’s programs and collaborations with partner organizations, women have the opportunity to participate in learning experiences through workshops focused on citizen advocacy; and

Whereas, West Virginia citizens are proud of the accomplishments and achievements of women in our state, both in the private and public sectors and appreciates their many contributions to our communities as they continue to advance in leadership roles in our society; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate:

That the Senate designates February 9, 2016, as Women’s and Girls’ Day at the Legislature; and,

Further Resolved, That the Senate expresses its sincere appreciation to women for the many contributions they make to the state of West Virginia in all facets of our society; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Clerk is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the West Virginia Women’s Commission.

At the request of Senator Ferns, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.

On second reading, coming up in regular order, was read a second time.
The following amendment to the bill, from the Committee on the Judiciary, was reported by the Clerk and adopted:
By striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:
That §29B-1-4 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1. PUBLIC RECORDS.

§29B-1-4. Exemptions.

(a) There is a presumption of public accessibility to all public records, subject only to the following categories of information which are specifically exempt from disclosure under the provisions of this article:

(1) Trade secrets, as used in this section, which may include, but are not limited to, any formula, plan pattern, process, tool, mechanism, compound, procedure, production data or compilation of information which is not patented which is known only to certain individuals within a commercial concern who are using it to fabricate, produce or compound an article or trade or a service or to locate minerals or other substances, having commercial value, and which gives its users an opportunity to obtain business advantage over competitors;
(2) Information of a personal nature such as that kept in a personal, medical or similar file, if the public disclosure of the information would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in this particular instance: Provided, That this article does not preclude an individual from inspecting or copying his or her own personal, medical or similar file;

(3) Test questions, scoring keys and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment or academic examination;

(4) Records of law-enforcement agencies that deal with the detection and investigation of crime and the internal records and notations of such law-enforcement agencies which are maintained for internal use relating to law enforcement;

(5) Information specifically exempted from disclosure by statute;

(6) Records, archives, documents or manuscripts describing the location of undeveloped historic, prehistoric, archaeological, paleontological and battlefield sites or constituting gifts to any public body upon which the donor has attached restrictions on usage or the handling of which could irreparably damage the record, archive, document or manuscript;

(7) Information contained in or related to examination, operating or condition reports prepared by, or on behalf of, or for the use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions, except those reports which are by law required to be published in newspapers;

(8) Internal memoranda or letters received or prepared by any public body;

(9) Records assembled, prepared or maintained to prevent, mitigate or respond to terrorist acts or the threat of terrorist acts, the public disclosure of which threaten the public safety or the public health;

(10) Those portions of records containing specific or unique vulnerability assessments or specific or unique response plans, data, databases and inventories of goods or materials collected or assembled to respond to terrorist acts; and communication codes or deployment plans of law-enforcement or emergency response personnel;

(11) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records dealing with terrorist acts or the threat of a terrorist act shared by and between federal and international law-enforcement agencies, state and local law-enforcement and other agencies within the Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety;

(12) National security records classified under federal executive order and not subject to public disclosure under federal law that are shared by federal agencies and other records related to national security briefings to assist state and local government with domestic preparedness for acts of terrorism;

(13) Computing, telecommunications and network security records, passwords, security codes or programs used to respond to or plan against acts of terrorism which may be the subject of a terrorist act;

(14) Security or disaster recovery plans, risk assessments, tests or the results of those tests;

(15) Architectural or infrastructure designs, maps or other records that show the location or layout of the facilities where computing, telecommunications or network infrastructure used to plan against or respond to terrorism are located or planned to be located;
(16) Codes for facility security systems; or codes for secure applications for facilities referred to in subdivision (15) of this subsection;

(17) Specific engineering plans and descriptions of existing public utility plants and equipment;

(18) Customer proprietary network information of other telecommunications carriers, equipment manufacturers and individual customers, consistent with 47 U. S. C. §222; and

(19) Records of the Division of Corrections, Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority and the Division of Juvenile Services relating to design of corrections, jail and detention facilities owned or operated by the agency, and the policy directives and operational procedures of personnel relating to the safe and secure management of inmates or residents, that if released, could be used by an inmate or resident to escape a facility, or to cause injury to another inmate, resident or to facility personnel;

(20) Information related to applications under section four, article seven, chapter sixty-one of this code, including applications, supporting documents, permits, renewals, or any other information that would identify an applicant for or holder of a concealed weapon permit: Provided: That information in the aggregate that does not identify any permit holder other than by county or municipality is not exempted: Provided, however, That information or other records exempted under this subdivision may be disclosed to a law enforcement agency or officer: (i) To determine the validity of a permit; (ii) to assist in a criminal investigation or prosecution; or (iii) for other lawful law-enforcement purposes;

(21) Personal information of employees of a public body maintained by the public body in the ordinary course of the employer-employee relationship. As used in this paragraph, “personal information” means an employee’s social security number, health information, home address, personal address, personal telephone numbers and personal email addresses and those of his or her spouse, parents and children as well as the names of the employee’s spouse, parents and children.

(b) As used in subdivisions (9) through (16), inclusive, subsection (a) of this section, the term “terrorist act” means an act that is likely to result in serious bodily injury or damage to property or the environment and is intended to:

(1) Intimidate or coerce the civilian population;

(2) Influence the policy of a branch or level of government by intimidation or coercion;

(3) Affect the conduct of a branch or level of government by intimidation or coercion; or

(4) Retaliate against a branch or level of government for a policy or conduct of the government.

(c) The provisions of subdivisions (9) through (16), inclusive, subsection (a) of this section do not make subject to the provisions of this chapter any evidence of an immediate threat to public health or safety unrelated to a terrorist act or the threat of a terrorist act which comes to the attention of a public entity in the course of conducting a vulnerability assessment response or similar activity.
