COUNTRY ROADS, TAKE ME HOME

John Denver's 1971 Hit Becomes West Virginia's Fourth Official State Song

Songwriters Bill Danoff, Taffy Nivert and John Denver perform "Take Me Home, Country Roads" at the official dedication of Mountaineer Field in 1980. The song has long been lovingly associated with the Mountain State and is beloved throughout the world. It can be heard in stadiums, bars and was even played at the funeral memorial of United States Senator Robert C. Byrd.

COUNTRY ROADS - LYRICS

Almost heaven, West Virginia, Blue Ridge Mountains, Shenandoah River.
Life is old there, older than the trees, younger than the mountains, blowing like a breeze.
Country roads, take me home to the place I belong.
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.

All my memories gather round her, miner's lady, stranger to blue water.
Dark and dusty, painted on the sky, misty taste of moonshine, teardrop in my eye.
Country roads, take me home to the place I belong.
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.

I hear her voice in the morning hour she calls me, the radio reminds me of my home far away.
And driving down the road I get a feeling that I should have been home yesterday, yesterday.
Country roads, take me home to the place I belong.
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.
Country roads, take me home to the place I belong.
West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.

One does not have to be from West Virginia to have heard the phrase "Almost Heaven, West Virginia." In fact, countries around the World are familiar with West Virginia because of the opening lines to John Denver's hit song "Take Me Home Country Roads."

Recognizing the impact this song has had on the state and its inhabitants, the West Virginia Legislature has adopted a resolution naming "Take Me Home, Country Roads" one of West Virginia's four official state songs.

The other previously named three state songs are; "This is My West Virginia," "The West Virginia Hills," and "West Virginia, My Home Sweet Home"

The song was written by Bill Danoff, John Denver and Taffy Nivert in 1970 and was recorded and released in 1971 on John Denver's album "Poems, Prayers, and Promises." It reached number two as a single on the U.S. Billboard's "Hot 100" chart.

House Concurrent Resolution 40 states, aside from radio and record success, "Take Me Home Country Roads" has been performed regularly at most important events within our state, including the memorial service for Senator Robert C. Byrd, the dedication ceremony of Mountaineer Field, and the pre-game and post-game ceremonies at athletic events at West Virginia University.

LEGISLATIVE RECORD – COMPLETED LEGISLATION

As of 4:00 p.m., Thursday, March 6, 2014, the 58th day of the 81st Legislature's 2nd Regular Session, 1,244 bills have been introduced in the House and 631 in the Senate. Of those bills, 69 have completed legislation in both chambers and either have or await the Governor's signature. A sampling of these completed bills includes:

Senate Bill 58 would allow for a voidable marriage or annulment if one spouse is unaware of the other spouse's felony conviction from before the marriage.

Senate Bill 90 would make it a misdemeanor to intentionally interfere with or prevent a person from calling emergency service personnel. Violating this would result in a fine between $250 and $2,000 and/or jail time from one day to one year. Punishments would increase with each offense, with a fine between $500 and $3,000 and/or jail for three months to one year on the second offense, and fines from $500 to $4,000 and/or jail for six months to one year on third offense and beyond.

Senate Bill 322 would provide that all state employees, employees of state institutions of higher education and the Higher Education Policy Commission be paid at least twice per month, as opposed to only twice per month.

Senate Bill 378 would prohibit someone from driving a motor vehicle meeting or overtaking a stopped waste service vehicle going at a speed over 15 miles per hour. This would apply if the waste service vehicle uses flashing lights or a visual signal and is not located in a private driveway, controlled access highway, turnpike or road with a center line and more than two lanes. Violating this would result in a misdemeanor, with a fine between $300 and $1,000 or jail confinement for a maximum of one year.

Senate Bill 387 would clarify that duly authorized officers from the District of Columbia and other states have lawful custody of prisoners they are transporting to or through this state.

Senate Bill 394 would change the Health Sciences Scholarship Program to the Health Sciences Service Program to better reflect the program's purpose of recruiting health care professionals to underserved areas of West Virginia.

Senate Bill 405 would protect the private information of petit court jurors by limiting the availability of juror questionnaire forms. The juror's forms would only be available with the written permission of the judge who presided over the trial after it concludes.

Senate Bill 408 would remove the three month good conduct condition as a prerequisite for parole. It would also require the Parole Board to consider an eligible inmate's parole regardless of whether they are in a facility not administered by the Division of Corrections.

Senate Bill 456 would extend the expiration date for the health care provider tax on eligible acute care hospitals from June 30, 2014 to June 30, 2015. This program is used to maximize the federal match for Medicaid.

Senate Bill 460 would add West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine to the list of state institutions of higher education that are allowed to invest certain moneys with its foundation, limited at $25,000,000.

Senate Bill 470 would provide that completed grand jury questionnaire forms are confidential. They would only be released from the clerk with the written permission of the circuit court.

Senate Bill 499 would make the Prudent Investor Act the primary standard of care for the Investment Management Board.

Senate Bill 558 would find and declare a moral obligation to pay the listed claims against state agencies approved by the Court of Claims with public moneys. It would also provide constitutional immunity of the State from a lawsuit or other legal restriction.

Senate Bill 600 would require the owner of a vacant building or property to keep it maintained at a standard deemed reasonable by a governing body. Owners would have to comply or eliminate the public nuisance through repairs, demolition or maintenance. These costs would be paid by the owner.

Senate Bill 602 would require employees of health care providers to wear identification badges when delivering direct patient care. This would apply to health care providers who employ at least three licensed practitioners or more than ten employees.

COUNTRY ROADS

“Take Me Home, Country Roads” can be heard outside of the state as well. It has become an international hit, as it is regularly played during Munich’s Oktoberfest.

No matter where it is played, the song holds a special place in the heart’s of all West Virginians, especially for those who have left the state. The song can play and a feeling of home is felt as the lyrics ring out “Country roads, take me home to the place I belong. West Virginia, mountain momma, take me home, country roads.”

The State Senate meets as the 2nd Session of the 81st Legislature draws to a close. The 60-day Regular Session ends at midnight on Saturday, March 8th. They will then immediately reconvene for several days to continue work on the State Budget Bill, SB 306.
